FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD TO AID COTTON

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Senator Smith of South Carolina issued a statement last night saying he had conferred with Secretary Houston and Gov. Harding of the federal reserve board and been assured that the federal reserve system would "lend all legitimate aid in rediscounting the paper based on cotton sent in by member banks."

The senator's statement said his

by member banks."

The senator's statement said his conferences had been prompted by conflicting reports as to what had transpired at a recent meeting between representatives of the American Cotton association and treasury officials. Gov. Harding, it is added, had writerated to the senator what had reiterated to the senator what he said to the cotton men while Sec-retary Houston denied he was opposed to the formation of export corporation by the cotton associa-
